INNOVATIONS COLLABORATIVE SERVICES

(In-Person and Virtual Training, Coaching & Technical Assistance)

The Innovations Collaborative of the Santa Clara County Office of Education (SCCOE) believes every individual, with their unique strengths and experiences, has the right to high quality learning and community environments. Provide your site/agency with the knowledge and skills to enhance best practices with training, observation, coaching and technical assistance from the Innovations Collaborative.

We provide individualized solutions – either short term or long term, customizing our services with expert trainers and coaches ready to meet your training needs. Thousands of educators, administrators and early childhood providers have relied on the Innovations Collaborative to provide evidence-based and competency-based trainings and support each year.

The Innovations Collaborative provides both in-person and virtual support, through a variety of means, including instructional rounds, professional learning communities, communities of practice, large or small group training, observation, coaching and technical assistance.

WHO WE TRAIN

Participants include: administrators, general education teachers and education specialists, paraeducators, family child care providers, community agency staff, home visitors and parents.
